

Privacy Notice to our Clients

A recently enacted federal law established new privacy standards and requires us to provide you a summary of our privacy policy once each year. This notice is for your information and no response is required.

Compass Financial Consulting, LLC ("Compass"), an independent financial planning firm, is committed to safeguarding the confidential information of its clients. We hold all personal information provided to our firm in the strictest confidence. The records include all personal information that we collect from you in connection with any of the services provided by Compass. We will not disclose nonpublic personal information to nonaffiliated third parties, except as permitted by law, and do not anticipate doing so in the future. If we were to anticipate such a change in firm policy, we would be prohibited under the law from doing so without advising you first. As you know, we use financial information that you provide to us to help you meet your personal financial goals while guarding against any real or perceived infringements of your rights of privacy. Our policy with respect to personal information about you is listed below.

- We limit employee access to information only to those who have a business or professional reason for knowing and only to nonaffiliated parties as permitted by law. For example, federal regulations permit us to share a limited amount of information about you with a brokerage firm in order to execute securities transactions on your behalf, or so that our firm can discuss your financial situation with your accountant or lawyer.
- We maintain a secure office and computer environment to ensure that your information is not placed at unreasonable risk.
- The categories of nonpublic personal information that we collect from a client depend upon the scope of the client engagement. It will include information about your personal finances as well as information about transactions between you and third parties.
- For unaffiliated third parties that require access to your personal information, including financial services companies, consultants and auditors, we also require strict confidentiality in our agreements with them and expect them to keep this information private. Federal and state regulators also may review firm records as permitted under law.
- We do not provide your personally identifiable information to mailing list vendors or solicitors for any purpose.
- Personally identifiable information about you will be maintained during the time you are a client and for the required time thereafter that such records are required to be maintained by federal and state securities laws and consistent with the CFP Board Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility. After this required period of record retention, all such information will be destroyed.

Compass and its employees greatly respect the privacy of the information you provide us. Any questions you have about our policy are important to us, so please contact us at (770) 563-8895 if there are items you would like to discuss further.